There are no Instructors available to teach you in locations out of Auckland, New Zealand just yet. However, it won't be too long before an Instructor is available in your area (as we are busy training Instructors all over the world through our online training course). As soon as an Instructor becomes licensed and is ready to teach, their contact details, class times and locations will be displayed here. Please keep an eye on this website for updates.

Alternatively, why not become an Instructor yourself with the coolest dance academy on the planet! If you're aged 18 to 108 (or over) you can train to be a Hip Op-eration Dance Academy™ Instructor regardless of your dance ability. The Hip Op-eration Dance Academy™ Instructors Course is an online course which you can do in your own time, anywhere in the world as long as you have access to the Internet. The online course covers everything you need to know to be a successful Instructor with the Academy including how to do all the Academy hip hop dance moves, how to teach seniors hip hop dance, and how to run your own Hip Op-eration Dance Academy™ business successfully. Just check out the 'Become an Instructor' section of this website.
